Muslims and Political Participation in Britain

Edited by Timothy Peace, University of Stirling, UK.

Series: Routledge Studies in Religion and Politics

This new volume seeks to showcase the latest research into Muslim political participation both in terms of electoral politics and civil society initiatives. This work highlights different aspects of Muslim participation in British politics. It investigates voting patterns and election campaigns, civil society and grassroots political movements, the engagement of young people and the participation of Muslims in formal political institutions. Written in an accessible style, this book will be of interest to students and scholars in a wide range of areas.
